

O.P. Jindal Global University
A Private University Promoting Public Service

Jindal School of Liberal Arts & Humanities
India's First Transnational Humanities School

Jindal School of Liberal Arts and Humanities (JSLH)

cordially invites you to

Jindal - Bologna Joint Workshop

on

REGULATORY ECONOMICS AND GOVERNANCE

11th February 2020 | Time: 10:00 am – 4:30 pm

Venue: T1, Big Bang Conference

O.P. Jindal Global University, Sonipat-131001

10:00 am

Opening Remarks

Kathleen A. Modrowski, Dean, JSLH

10:10 am – 10:30 am: Uncertainty and Prevention

Luigi A Franzoni

Professor, Department of Economics
University of Bologna, Italy

Luigi Alberto Franzoni (D.Phil. Nuffield College, Oxford) is Professor of Public Economics at the University of Bologna. He is a leading European academic scholar in the field of Law and Economics. His main fields of specialization are the economics of IPRs and law enforcement. He has written, together with D. Marchesi, the most important introductory book on law and economics in Italian language. He is currently acting as Mundus Director of the international Ph.D. programme "European Doctorate in Law and Economics" (Bologna, Hamburg, Rotterdam, Haifa). He also acted as the President of the European Law and Economics Association during 2014-2017.

10:40 am – 11:00 am: Rethinking Corruption (and, why the anti-corruption agenda might be seriously flawed).

Lucio Picci

Professor, Department of Economics
University of Bologna, Italy

Lucio Picci is a Professor of Economics at the University of Bologna, Italy, and holds a Ph.D. from the University of California at San Diego. His research interests are at the intersection between political economy, public governance and the economics of innovation. For several years he has been studying the problem of corruption, and he is conducting a long-term research project on the role of reputational incentives in public governance. Over the years, he has worked, or consulted, for international organizations such as the World Bank and the European Commission, and for several branches of the Italian government.

His work has been published in American Journal of Political Science; Journal of Business & Economic Statistics; Research Policy; The Review of Economics and Statistics; and The World Bank Economic Review.

11:10 am – 11:30 am: Networks of Cooperation under Resource Scarcity and Communal Heterogeneity

Siddhi Gyan Pandey

Assistant Professor
Jindal School of Liberal Arts and Humanities

Siddhi Gyan Pandey has completed her Ph.D. in Economics from the Centre for Economic Studies and Planning, Jawaharlal Nehru University (Delhi) in 2019. Prior to this she was teaching Economics at Ambedkar University Delhi. She has completed her M.A. and MPhil. in Economics from JNU and B.A. in Economics from Shri Ram College of Commerce, Delhi University. Most of her research involves a game theoretic analysis of networked interactions and social network formation. She also has a research interest in the area of law and economics.

11:45 am to 12:15 am: Tea Break

12:20 am – 12:50 pm: Global Challenges for the Online Platform Sector: Regulation or laissez faire?

Andrea Mantovani

Associate Professor
Department of Economics, University of Bologna, Italy

Andrea Mantovani is Associate Professor in Economics at the University of Bologna. He received both his M.A and PhD in Quantitative Economics from CORE, Université Catholique de Louvain. He also holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Bologna.

His main research focuses on industrial economics, managerial economics, competition policy, game theory, economics of innovation, and environmental economics. He regularly teaches microeconomics, industrial economics, and international economics. He has published in top journals such as Management Science, Strategy Science, International Journal of Industrial Organization, Journal of Economic Dynamics and Control, Resource and Energy Economics, Information Economics and Policy, Economics Letters, Journal of Competition Law & Economics, and Health Economics, among others. He has also written a book on the Economics of the European Integration.

1:00 pm – 2:15 pm: Lunch Time

2:30 pm – 2:50 pm: Meso-level Responses to the Macro-Processes of Market-Making in Higher Education: Concerns for 'Quality'

Anamika Srivastava

Assistant Professor
Jindal Global Law School

Anamika Srivastava is Assistant Professor at Jindal Global Law School and a Fellow at International Institute for Higher Education Research and Capacity Building (IIHEd) at OP Jindal Global University (JGU) situated in Sonapat, India. She is also the Assistant Director at Centre for International Trade and Economics Laws (CITEL) at JGU. Her research interest is in the area of economic approach in education policy. She is currently working on developing the State Higher Education Plan for Haryana under Rashtriya Uchchar Shiksha Abhiyan, a Government of Haryana project at IIHEd. She is a PhD candidate at Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India and her Ph.D. topic is 'Education Production Function and the Study of Quality in Private Higher Education in India'. She has presented papers at national and international conferences and has published in the area of school choice, quasi-markets in education, education for sustainable development, and inter-disciplinarity in educational studies.

3:00 pm – 3:20 pm: Political Polarization and Immigrants' Voting Rights.
Evidence from a Natural Experiment.

Giuseppe Pignataro
Assistant Professor
Department of Economics, University of Bologna, Italy

Giuseppe Pignataro is an Assistant Professor of Economics at the Department of Economics, University of Bologna - Italy. His research interests include inequality and poverty measurements, economics of information, applied theory and microeconomics and public economics. He has published in journals like Journal of Economic Behavior and Organization, Theory and Decision, Health Economics and Journal of Banking and Finance.

3:30 pm – 3:50 pm: How Knowledge Attributes Impede Institutional Evolution?

Yugank Goyal
Associate Professor
Jindal School of Liberal Arts and Humanities

Yugank Goyal is associate professor of economics. He is the founding faculty member of OP Jindal Global University, where he assumed crucial role in institution building during its founding stage. He has been the assistant dean for research and international collaboration, both in its law school as well as in the school of humanities. He enjoys doing interdisciplinary research and has been, of late, focusing more on institutions and knowledge, law and development, regulation and informality. Yugank has taught in visiting capacity at IIM Ahmedabad, Vedica Scholars Programme, FLAME University and has been the docent at the Harvard Law School's Institute for Global Law & Policy. He routinely offers research advisory to organizations and government departments on public policy, regulatory and higher education. He sits on the Governing Council of the Indian School of Public Policy, and on the boards of emerging technology start-ups in India.

4:00 pm: Closing Remarks