DR. NARESH SINGH

Independent International Development Advisor

Dr. Naresh Singh is currently Honorary Visiting Professor in the Jindal School of Government and Public Policy.

Dr. Naresh Singh embodies transdisciplinarity. He has a Master's in Agriculture and a doctorate in Environmental Chemistry. He has been working and publishing for three decades in the fields of governance, public policy, law, and international development. He is the co-organiser of the recent JGU/JSJP conference on International Conference on Quantum Decision Theory and Complexity Modelling in Economics and Public Policy. Dr Singh was lead consultant to UNDP Yemen on Multidimensional Livelihoods Assessment in Conflict Affected Areas and Chair of the forum on Legal Empowerment at the South-South Expo in Nairobi, focussing on building inclusive green economies. He was also an adviser to UNDP Afghanistan on livelihoods of street vendors in Kabul, and to UNDP India on livelihoods recovery after disasters. He was Program Director of the Caribbean Local Economic Development program (2011-2012) with the Federation of Canadian Municipalities; Director-General for Governance and Social Development and then Strategic Planning at the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) for nearly 10 years; Executive Director of the Commission on Legal Empowerment of the Poor, co-chaired by Madeleine Albright and Hernando de Soto (2006-2008); and Principal Adviser for Poverty and Sustainable Livelihoods, UNDP New York (1996-2001), besides many other such positions.
